

I urge retention of current ownership rules. Control of what the public sees, hears and reads by a powerful privileged few poses grave dangers to an open democratic society. Vote against media consolidation on June 2.